

Mark Freado

Trainer & Consultant, Cal Farley's
Vice President/CFO, Reclaiming Youth International

Mr. Freado's more than 30-year professional career encompasses contributions to the mental health field, public and alternative education, social services, juvenile correctional services, program development, leadership, consultation, and training. He is a lead trainer with Reclaiming Youth International, a master trainer with the Life Space Crisis Intervention (LSCI) Institute, a certified trainer Response Abilities Pathways (RAP), a certified trainer of PersonBrain, and a certified trainer of Situational Leadership II with the Ken Blanchard Company.

He has worked with private providers and public agencies internationally, delivering consulting and training services in such areas as:

- ❖ Life Space Crisis Intervention©, Master Trainer and most experienced LSCI trainer in the world.
- ❖ Response Abilities Pathways©, Senior Trainer
- ❖ Situational Leadership II©, Certified by Ken Blanchard Co.
- ❖ The Developmental Audit©
- ❖ PersonBrain
- ❖ Re-ED training and consultation
- ❖ developing value-based services
- ❖ program, leadership and team development
- ❖ safe and reclaiming schools
- ❖ residential services
- ❖ juvenile justice services
- ❖ community service collaboration projects
- ❖ therapeutic foster care
- ❖ ecological family services
- ❖ communication skills enhancement
- ❖ crisis and anger management

He specializes in interventions for at-risk and disadvantaged children, adolescents, and their families.

Freado is a native of Monessen, PA, a graduate of Westminster College (PA) and West Virginia University. He has resided in Westerville, OH since 1992.

For more information on how to have Mr. Freado customize training directly for your staff, please contact him directly at markfreado@calfarley.org or mfreado@gmail.com or call 614-783-6314.